

DENVER LANGUAGE SCHOOL

Board of Directors Job Description

The Board shall represent the vision, mission, and goals of The Denver Language School in its goals, policies, and decisions; always keeping in mind the interest of students.

The Board is responsible for ensuring that the academic program of Denver Language School (DLS) is successful, that the school's program and operation are faithful to the terms of its charter, and that the school is a viable organization.

The business, property and affairs of this School shall be conducted and managed by the Board. The Board shall have full control and responsibility for the affairs and operation of the School and may exercise any and all corporate and School powers, subject only to the requirements of the Articles of the School and these Bylaws. Responsibility for day-to-day operations of the School and for implementation of the policies established by the Board shall be the responsibility of contractors, employees or others operating under supervision of the Principal.
